ENJOY ENGLISH STORY OF THE WEEK—GOING ABROAD

Cayron was a young man from the Philippines who had a big choice to make. A prestigious American university had invited him to come and study. They would pay for his studies, housing, and travel expenses. Cayron could not believe his good fortune. There was just one problem. There was a girl in his village that he loved very much. They had grown up together and they had already talked about getting married someday. Cayron was torn. Going to study abroad was an once-in-a-lifetime opportunity that other students would 'kill' to have. On the other hand, he believed that this girl was his true soul mate and he was afraid of losing her...

What do you think?

1. If you were Cayron, what would you do?
2. What is more important in life? Love or experiences?
3. Do you think that there is any chance for their love to last being so far away from each other?
4. What would you say if you were Cayron's girlfriend? How would you feel?

George Sand said:

"There is only one happiness in life, to love and be loved."
