

ENJOY ENGLISH

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 3

Enjoy English is a publication of the China Teaching Web and may be used and distributed freely in the ESL classroom as long as it is not modified in any way. For more free issues and information, please visit www.TeachAbroadChina.com/Enjoy

ENJOY ENGLISH STORY OF THE WEEK— THE BIG EXAM

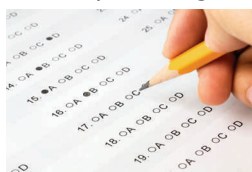

Jack felt that he was not ready to take the big exam. All year, he had paid attention in class and completed his homework on time but he was afraid that he would not be able to remember everything that he needed to know. On Monday morning, as he sat down in class to take the exam, he noticed that one of the smartest students in class was sitting close by. Her name was Sally and she always knew the right answers. He took a sideways glance at her desk and discovered that it was very easy to see her exam. Immediately, he heard a little voice telling him not to cheat. Jack's face flushed and he felt uncomfortable. He needed to pass this exam...

What do you think?

1. What do you think Jack did?
2. What would you have done?
3. Does cheating on an exam hurt anyone?
4. What are other ways of cheating?
5. Do you think cheating is wrong?
6. Have you ever cheated before?

Sophocles said:

"I would prefer to even fail with honor than to win by cheating."

Learn the Words

Paid Attention— Focusing on something in order to remember it.

Completed— To finish something.

Noticed—To see something that catches your attention.

Sideways Glance—To move your eyes to one side without moving your head.

Discovered— To find something out.

Flushed—When your face feels hot and becomes red.

ENGLISH WORD OF THE WEEK

Intense:

Used to describe something that is very strong or overpowering.

For Example:

Yesterday, there was an intense fire that destroyed 2 houses in my neighborhood.

ENGLISH EXPRESSION OF THE WEEK

Hindsight is 20/20

How to Use:

This means that it is always easier to say we understand something after it has happened.

Example:

If I had known that they were crooks, I would not have done business with them.

ENGLISH TIDBITS OF THE WEEK

Did You Know?

200,000,000 Dollars

That's how much it cost to make a film about the Titanic. It only cost 7,000,000,000 dollars to build the Titanic!

Riddle of the Week

LOL!

One word in this sentence is misspelled. What is it?

Look in next week's Enjoy English!

Last week's Answer: Lunch and Dinner

提高英语

VISIT

TeachAbroadChina.com

for more ESL lessons and activities!

Looking For A New ESL Job in China?

Teachabroadchina.com

has you covered!

Copyright © 2020
TeachAbroadChina.com