ENJOY ENGLISH STORY OF THE WEEK — THE DECISION

Vicky was in a big hurry as she walked out of the store and into the parking lot. She needed to be at the office in 15 minutes to meet the vice president of her company, who was going to be in town for the day. She quickly jumped into the car, pulled the door shut, and put the keys into the ignition. She took a quick glance behind her and began to back out of the space. Suddenly, she heard a crunch and realized that she had swiped the car next to her. She jumped out of the car and surveyed the scene. It didn't look good. The car that she had hit probably had four hundred dollars worth of damage. She looked around. No one had seen the accident...

What do you think?

1. If you were Vicky, what would you do in this situation?
2. If you were the owner of the damaged car, what would you want Vicky to do?
3. What do you think Vicky's boss will say if she is late to the office?
4. Have you ever damaged something that didn't belong to you?

Bodie Thoene said:

"What is right is often forgotten by what is convenient."
